

To schedule a program, please contact
Education Program ■ 699-3982 ■ michael_larson@nps.gov

Available Education Programs

These programs can be tailored to your specific curriculum.

Choose from any of these topics or explore other possibilities:

- Archaeology of Samoa
What is left behind and what can it tell us about the Samoan culture?
- Bats
Why are bats here? Bat cultural traditions. What are bats ecological role?
- Birds
Bird species. Evolution. Ecological niches.
- Coral Reef
How fa'asamoa affects the reefs and why we should care. Food chain. Reef benefits.
- U.S. History in American Samoa
What role does American Samoa play in U.S. and World history? World War II history such as Blunts and Breakers Points.
- South Pacific Fishes
Food chain. Fishing techniques (traditional and modern).
- Guided Hikes
Short or long hikes with educational themes throughout the island.
- Invasive Species of American Samoa
What are they? What are their effects?
- What is a National Park?
Better understand the National Park Service, its mission and what role it plays in American Samoa.
- National Natural and Historical Landmarks
There are seven in American Samoa. What are they? Where are they? What is their importance nationally and for Samoan culture?
- Natural History of the Islands (Geology)
How were the islands formed?
- Samoan Rainforest
Invasive species. Food chain. Types of ecosystems around the world and what is unique in American Samoa. How to get involved in preserving this ecosystem.
- Samoan Culture (including demonstrations)
Traditional uses and techniques such as weaving, wood carving, siapo, and tattoos.